

Properties list:
information about use
information about content
cardboard and paper
new product
pharmaceuticals
folding carton
bottle
additional structural elements
die cut

The packaging for two medicine bottles is made out of one single piece of cardboard without using any glue. The small spoon inserted between the two bottles helps to keep them upright.

Reference: <http://packaginguqam.blogspot.com>

Credits:

Country: Canada

Year: 2007

School: UQAM Universit  du Qu bec   Montr al (Montr al, Canada)

Course: Graphic Design (DES4211)

Professor: Sylvain Allard

Student: Louis-Pierre Chouinard

Other images: