ST. GEORGES WATER

Properties list:

new product water labels and sleeves bottle plastics transparent identity by typography single product end-user packaging

Designed by Philippe Starck in 1998, the bottle emphasises the purity of the water through the linear bottle's design. Starck has also indicated the origin of the source through the color of the cork: black as the Corsica island's flag. Two sizes - 1.5 and 2.5 l bottles.
