

CB PERFUME

Properties list:

adults
end-user packaging
range of products
new product
cosmetics, beauty and toiletries
tube
flacon
glass and ceramics
cardboard and paper
historical, traditional hand-made

Chris Brosius always digs in the vast world of fragrances looking for something new. These precious, personal scents are balanced by the very simple nature of glass bottles, identified by a system of paper labels: each label is different from the others and it is characterized by the use of typography. Each bottle has a diffuser (in the 100ml version) or even a basic plastic cap (in the 15ml version), and it is contained in a black cardboard tube, with a brief story of the perfume.

Reference: <http://www.cbihateperfume.com>

Credits:

Country: United States of America

Year: 1992

Other images:

