Karpati nail care personally designed by Eva Karpati.

From rise-worldwide.com website: "This is pretty cool, and I don?t even paint my nails. Ka rpati nail care hailing from Oz has been personally formulated and designed by Eva Karpati. Not that I have made painting my nails a regular occurrence, but on the rare times that I have, its always awkward what to do with the flippin bottle of stuff. This functionally brilliant design slips over the fingers like a ring, meaning no flat surface needed to steady the bottle. The design has been included in the Design Collection of the Museum of Modern Art in New York."
